FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JETREFILM PRESENTS GOTHIC WESTERN SHROUD (2009)
World-Wide PPV, DVD & Blu-Ray Distribution Rights Available

Jetrefilm Entertainment is very proud to present their first HD feature film. Shroud follows a young woman's journey from Holland to the America of the early 1860's – torn by civil war. Having learned of her husband's peril in a lost town in the Old West, she makes a dangerous transatlantic journey in search of answers. Arriving in the town of Shroud, the woman begins to unravel a dark 300-year old secret.

Jetrefilm Entertainment is currently accepting inquires from Studios, Distributors and Acquisition Companies regarding the world-wide distribution rights for Shroud. DVD screeners are currently available for review. A private HD theater showing in Dallas is planned for late February.

Shroud is written and directed by David Jetre and produced by Edgar C Pitts III and David Jetre. Shroud stars Nichole Leigh as Victoria Celestine, Russell Reynolds as Mayor Undercroft, Morgana Shaw as Elizabeth and Jodie Moore as Jericho Lynch. Principal photography took place across the state of Texas with additional units in the Arizona deserts and California coast.

Jetrefilm Entertainment is a new breed of film production company. At the core of our business model and mission statement is the ability to innovate through the use emerging technologies while telling enduring stories. We are built upon our vision to be independent in every sense of the word – autonomous in resources, direction and implementation, but not in marketability.

A series of internet resources were designed and implemented to promote the film: Official Movie Website – www.Shroud-Movie.com; Viral Marketing Website – www.WhatIsShroud.com; Online Press Kit – www.ShroudHD.com Browse these sites for additional details about the project.
